Paul Fannin Leadership Award
2012-2013

The Paul Fannin Leadership Award was established to recognize student leaders at Phoenix College who exhibit outstanding leadership amongst their peers.

Eligibility: Students must be enrolled in more than six (6) credit hours and have a GPA above 3.0. They must be an active participant and member of a student organization that is affiliated with Phoenix College.

Recipients: Two recipients will be chosen with a preference to one female and one male.

Award: Each recipient will receive a $250 award and a medal of accomplishment at the Ursa Awards Ceremony on Thursday, April 18.

Criteria: (1) Demonstrates excellence in student activities, leadership, and academics. (2) Displays creativity and innovation. (3) Incorporates diversity and community awareness. (4) Enhances a student organization through their involvement. (5) Serves as a campus ambassador and role model to other students.

Nominations must be submitted by Friday, March 29 to the attention Diana Martinez, Program Specialist Student Life (diana.martinez@phoenixcollege.edu). Self-nominations will not be accepted.

NOMINATION FORM

Nominator Information

Full Name:
Phone:
Email:
Club Affiliation:

Nominee Information

Full Name:
Phone:
Email:
Club Affiliation:
Leadership Position (if applicable):
GPA (if known):
Spring 2013 Credit Hours (if known):
Please describe how the student demonstrates excellence in student activities, leadership, and academics (250 words or less).

Please describe how the student displays creativity and innovation within the club’s activities (250 words or less).

Please describe how the student incorporates diversity and community awareness (250 words or less).

Please describe how the student enhances a student organization through their involvement (250 words or less).

Please describe how the student serves as a campus ambassador and role model to other students (250 words or less).